ORATORIO AT PINEVILLE CHURCH MARCH 31

Nestled deep in the piney woods in the rear of Pass Christian is the tiny village of Pineville. Here stands a small wooden chapel known as the Pineville Presbyterian Church. Its congregation boasts about 25 members. Certainly not impressive from a numerical standpoint.

But twice each year for the past five years, the little chapel becomes the setting for some of the most brilliant music that lovers of this art are privileged to hear on the Gulf Coast.

Five years ago, Mr. Ben Morrison, Pass Christian, a brilliant musician conceived the idea of presenting Easter and Christmas Cantatas in the Chapel. Carefully selecting the voices for these presentations, Mr. Morrison has been able to conduct some of the finest Oratorios composed by having the music edited for use by small choirs.

Acting as "Precentor," an old Scottish word for the man who led the singing of the hymns in church, Mr. Morrison will this year present one of Handel's finest compositions "The Passion According to St. John."

The Oratorio will be sung on Easter Eve, Saturday, March 31, at 8 p. m. The public is invited to attend, but advised to come early, as the 25 members of the church are joined by more than 100 visitors each time one of these Oratorios are sung.

In addition to Mr. Morrison the choir will be composed of four other members.

Mrs. James True, Pass Christian, soprano, is well known in New Orleans, her native city. Before her marriage she was Miss Frances Tortorich, and sang with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra and with the Cincinnati Symphony under the direction of the renowned Eugene Ormandy.

Mrs. N. L. Cassibry, contralto of the quintette, is a resident of Gulfport and made her debut in concert at Carnegie Hall, New York City.

Mrs. Robert Innes, also a Gulfport resident has been professionally trained and is first soprano in the Gulfport Presbyterian Church choir.

Claude Rhea, Jr., tenor is head of the Music Department of the Baptist Theological Institute in New Orleans.

Mrs. Lloyd Griffith, Bay St. Louis, organist of Trinity Church, Pass Christian, and a former professional musician, is accompanist.

Vaccine Received This Week

According to news released from the State Health Board at Jackson this week, Dr. A. L. Gray, an additional 90,000 doses of polio vaccine are being delivered to county health departments over the state. Dr. C. M. Shipp, Hancock County Health officer, makes the following statement:

Your County Health Department has been notified that a small allotment of polio vaccine will be delivered to this office in the next few days. We have positive instructions not to give any booster or third shots to any child at this time. These shots will be given later. It is to be used on children who have had one dose or who have had no shots at all in the age group of one to nine.

Note: The first injection prevents 60% of crippling. The second injection gives an additional 15% to 20% of protection. The third shot adds from 10% to 15% more protection. So long as we can't get enough vaccine for the first and second injections for the more susceptible children, we logically must give more people the first and second shots at the expense of giving booster injections.

Prospects: We believe that in April and May we will secure enough vaccine for booster injections of all who need it and make a good beginning on all children in the pre-school age group.

Mrs. John Damborino who has been visiting in England with her son-in-law and daughter and her newly arrived son returned this week. Mrs. Damborino who made the trip by plane arrived in New York Wednesday morning and in New Orleans Thursday.

GOVERNOR COLEMAN TO VISIT BAY ST. LOUIS, MAY 12

Governor J. P. Coleman, chief executive of the State of Mississippi, will visit Bay St. Louis on May 12, 1956, it was announced here today.

The governor, with his wife and a small group of select friends, will be the guests of the St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club. The purpose of the visit of the governor will be to act as the principal speakers at a testimonial banquet.

This banquet, sponsored by the St. Stanislaus Sidelines Club, will honor the man and the woman selected as outstanding in Hancock County for the past year. This is the first banquet of this kind in which the entire county is included.

The governor, at the request of Earl Ramond, President of the Sidelines Club, graciously agreed to attend the banquet and act as guest speaker for the occasion.

All clubs, organizations and church groups of all denominations will be contacted by Mr. Ramond in regard to nominees and about the banquet. Each of the groups will be allowed to select one man and one woman from among its membership.

These will be persons who have proved outstanding in their particular field of endeavor during the past year. The entire list will be checked and from it one man and one woman will be chosen as Hancock County's Outstanding Citizens of the Year. The banquet will be held in the honor.

Mr. Ramond also announced that the B.W. Garden Club will provide entertainment for the ladies of the governor's group during their stay here. The Sidelines Club will act as host for entertaining the governor and the men of his party. One of the events planned for the men is a fishing trip.

Many years that the governor of our state will visit our city, governors have come here before, but mainly in connection with political campaigns.

Mr. Ramond and the Sidelines have scored impressively in securing such an outstanding man and so eloquent a speaker as Governor Coleman for the initial banquet honoring our county's most deserving man and most outstanding lady.

These clubs have met on several occasions and competition is always at fever heat. Plan on enjoying the day in golf and entertainment. A supper will follow the days play.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for John Franklin Kellar, president of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors. Religious services were held in the Corinth Baptist Church, in the Santa Rosa Community.

Mr. Kellar died Sunday morning about 12:45 a. m. in Crosby Memorial Hospital, Picayune, where he had been brought after being shot by a rifle late Saturday afternoon, while hunting in the Catahoula Dead Tiger Creek Swamp, about 12 miles southeast of Picayune.

Members of the family said Kellar was hiding in a clump of bushes and using a turkey caller when the accident occurred.

Gladden Burch 18 and Arthur Ray Mitchell, 19, both of Flat Top community, were hunting in the same area. They were unaware of anyone else in the vicinity.

Burch said he thought he heard a turkey, and when he saw movement in the bushes fired his 22 rifle. The shot entered the back of Kellar's head and emerged through the forehead.

The death was ruled accidental by a coroner's jury on Sunday. After the shooting occurred the two youths placed the wounded man in a truck and started through the swamps to rush him to the Picayune hospital. However, the truck bogged in the mud.

Burch ran several miles for assistance. Constable Rod McQueen, Beat 2, and Warren Whitfield, Burch's grandfather, helped the lads in getting Kellar to the Picayune Hospital. The victim was admitted about 8 o'clock, nearly three hours after the shooting occurred.

The funeral for Mr. Kellar was one of the most impressive ever held in the county. State Highway patrolmen W. P. Kenny, Fred Curet and Fred Milling escorted the procession of cars which extended for better than two miles. Bay St. Louis Police Chief Alcine Saucier and Patrolman Pat Garcia assisted in keeping order in the milling crowds present to pay their last respects to a well loved community leader.

Every official in Hancock County was present for the last rites, with Reverend J. R. Boutwell officiating.

Mr. Kellar who was 56 years of age is survived by his widow, Mrs. Samantha Blackwell Kellar, and a foster son, Terry. He had served for 8 years as a member of the Board of Hancock County.

SURPRISE SHOWER
A surprise shower for Miss Glenda Reed was held at the home of Mrs. C. Ripple, Thursday evening, with her daughter Miss Connie Ripple acting as hostess. The shower featured miscellaneous gifts and Miss Reed received many lovely presents.

Miss Reed, who is senior at Bay High School, was married Saturday afternoon at 3:30 in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church. She became the bride of John Louis Boudin, of Bay St. Louis. The young couple left on a Florida honeymoon.

Friends of Glenda's who attended the shower in Waveland were Noleen Ladner, Carol Sue Bandret, Anne Frator, Rusty Breath, Sister Sullivan, Shirley Miller, Carol Johnston, Glenda Randolph, Carol Hobbs, Peggy Smith, Evelyn Ladner and Suzanne Snider.

Red Cross Drive At Half-way Mark

"Have you given yet to this year's Red Cross Fund Drive?" If not, please don't wait. Send in your contributions NOW. Your donations - large and small - are desperately needed now, if your Red Cross Chapter is to continue to function in our town and county!

Whatever assistance the chapter is able to furnish during the year is entirely dependent on you. Please give now from your heart!

This urgent appeal was sounded this week by Kenneth Pepperdene, Hancock County Chapter fund campaign chairman, as the drive neared the beginning of the last week with only about 50% of the goal reached.

"By Tuesday we had $2,461.00, but we need $4865 to go over the top by the end of the campaign on March 31."

"We are trying to reach everyone in our door-to-door calls, but on many occasions workers were unable to find someone at home, even after two or three visits. Please help us, if you have not been contacted, by mailing in your donation or drop it by the Red Cross Office in the Courthouse or at Mauffray's Hardware Store," Pepperdene said.

Among volunteers shown this week are a group of Grey Ladies who visit the Gulfport VA hospital regularly each week. Other chapter services include first aid instruction, swimming classes and community service by various social, civic and religious groups in helping servicemen and veterans at the military hospitals in Gulfport and Biloxi.

The chapter maintains a full-time staff worker to carry on the necessary routine and technical work of the organization.

Coleman Ave. - WAVELAND

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes of Waveland Avenue, we have begun to know that it is really SPRING!

Congratulations are extended to pretty little Amy, Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynch, who was five years old on March 16.

An Easter party with all the fun and excitement of an Easter egg hunt was part of the afternoon's pleasure. Those present and wishing Amy a most happy birthday, were "Buzzy" Torgerson, Dan, Mike, Marsha, Diane, Cathy and Mary Griffin, Marshall and Jimmie Wilcox, Sharon Walters, C. B. and Phil Mollere, Gail Mollere, Charla and Rusty Price, Ellen and Beth Colson, and Francis Shippey. The Easter egg hunt provided fever pitch excitement with Beth Colson winning first prize, a gold egg, and Mike Griffin winning a prize for finding the most eggs.

The Bay St. Louis Methodist Church has invited those who can to worship with it at a sunrise service at 6 a. m. on Easter Sunday.

The Waveland Methodist Church will hold Easter service at the regular hour, 9 a. m. on Easter. All are welcome to attend.

Mrs. Olo Mollere and daughter Gail, in Jacksonville, Florida, visiting Mrs. Mollere's mother, Mrs. Brune. Mrs. Brune will undergo surgery shortly. Everyone wishes her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hall, daughter, Lynne, and Mrs. T. H. Brockman enjoyed dinner in New Orleans last week and later attended a performance of "Tea and Sympathy" at the Civic Theatre. The play starred Maria Riva, daughter of Marlene Dietrich and well-known television actress.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bordages and Mrs. Laura Carrio spent Monday in New Orleans.

Don't forget the date! April
